

BEST PRACTICE:

1. Title of the practice

- Web-based interactive case discussions for Postgraduates

Objectives

- To measure and improve clinical competencies
- To prepare them for university and other competitive exams

The Context

- The web based case discussion is format to assess the clinical orientation and case solving ability of postgraduate students in a comprehensive manner.

The Practice

- The web based case discussion PPT prepared by a consultant comprising of various system based cases is conducted for the postgraduates weekly on Tuesday in seminar hall.
- Postgraduates are expected to narrate the clinical case and discuss the relevant imaging findings provided and describe to possible differential diagnosis.

Evidence of success

- Overall improvement in clinical and imaging acumen
- Improved problem solving ability of the students.
- Improvement in marks of students in quarterly internal assessment exam.

2. Title of the practice

There are ongoing session of inter departmental teaching programmes like Radio-Patho meet, Radio-Medicine meet, Radio-Ortho meet & Radio-OBG meet.

Objectives

- To arrive at a conclusive diagnosis based on discussion with other department
- To measure and improve clinical competencies

The Context

Inter departmental case discussion is a platform to know about clinical or laboratory investigations performed by other departments for the same case to arrive at a diagnosis

The Practice

Postgraduates are expected to narrate the clinical case and discuss the relevant imaging findings provided and describe the possible differential diagnosis.

Evidences of Success

- Overall improvement in clinical and imaging acumen.
- Improved problem solving ability of the students.